DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claim 13 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The claim is indefinite because the term "the pressure" lacks proper antecedent basis. It is not clear what is referenced as "reducing the pressure. It is further unclear whether or not the claim requires a step of reducing a pressure. Where the pressure should be reduced?

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

4. Claims 1-5, 7-13, 16 and 17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Chang et al (US Patent No 6,319,809).

Art Unit: 1746

Chang et al teach a method as claimed. See entire document, especially column 1, lines 38-45, column 5, lines 28-50, column 6, line 23 – column 7, line 7.

5. Claims 1-5 and 7-17 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Sharangpani et al (US Patent No 6,3030,524).

Sharangpani et al teach a method as claimed. See entire document, especially column 4, lines 21-31, column 5, lines 35-58, column 6, lines 5-10, and column 7, line 43 – column 10, line 21.

6. Claims 1, 2, 5-8 and 17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Chung (US Patents 6,452,275 and 6,559,045).

Chung teaches a method as claimed. See entire document, especially column 6, line 35 – column 10, line 28.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

7. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

8. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

9. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

10. Claim 6 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Sharangpani et al.

Sharangpani et al teach the claimed method except for recitation of the specifically claimed energy range.

However, energy level of the application of the radiation treatment is a result effective variable. It would have been obvious to an ordinary artisan at the time the invention was made to find an optimum level of the UV radiation in the method of Sharangpani et al by routine experimentation in order to enhance the process.

11. Claims 6, 14 and 15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Chang et al.

Chang et al teach the claimed method except for recitation of the specifically claimed energy range and the treatment time.

Art Unit: 1746

Conclusion

12. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. US Patent No 5,705,232 is cited to show the state of the prior art with respect to treatment of low K dielectrics.
